Christmas Tree Poem

Christmas tree, sparkling bright,
Filled with baubles, warmth and light,
Precious symbol of our affection
For Christmas time and its perfection,
Show each night your radiant glory
For "oohs" and "aahs" obligatory.
Christmas tree, don't let us down;
Show something special at your crown,
An angel, star, or splendid piece
To make our holiday joy increase,
An icon, pure, ideal, complete,
For Christmas memories fond and sweet.
Glitter and glisten, gleam and glow,
Oh Christmas tree, we love you so!

At the Governor's second Cabinet Meeting on November 6th at the Cozy in Thurmont, four LEO Club's Presidents reported on their size, completed activities and plans for the future during this school year. Three LEO Club presidents-- Mt. Airy Middle School 8th grader Ashley Hobbs, Thurmont Middle School 8th grader Kiley Warner, and Liberty High School LEOs senior Kelsey Hof—made heart-warming reports about their community service activities. In one way or another, these LEOs are focused on feeding hungry families and providing clothing and toys to kids for Christmas.

Then, Senior Carly Weetman, president of the newly-formed Francis Scott Key High School LEOs Club, told the Cabinet about how the Taneytown Lions' Sam Foster and his LEOs Committee had worked with her and other charter members to get their Club launched. She reported that the Club's Chartering Ceremony is planned for December 2nd and that the members had already begun planning to help the local needy families during the Christmas season.

Besides their presidents, other offices from each were there to represent their respective LEO clubs. LEO Club LEO Advisors from the sponsoring Lions Clubs also attended the Cabinet meeting: Carl Livesay—Freedom District, Eileen Disinger—Mt Airy, Robin Keeney—Thurmont and Sam Foster—Taneytown. Following the LEOs presentations, the LEO Leaders held a separate session to exchange idea and begin discussing formation of the 22-W LEOs District.

I'm here to help any Lions Club get a LEOs Club going!

Lion George Bolling, District LEO Chairman
